

Partner promotion brings cheer to BTO

Law firm BTO Solicitors has promoted Jennifer Whitelaw to partner. As part of BTO's commercial property team, Ms Whitelaw has more than 22 years' experience of development and residential conveyancing. She acts for clients including housebuilders, social landlords, and charities. Chairman Alan Borthwick said: "Jennifer's sound knowledge and experience enable her to guide clients through difficult situations and find solutions which are workable and pragmatic, but which still afford the necessary legal protection. We fully expect that she will continue to use her experience, skills and work ethic to achieve the best results for our clients."
