Family Law Fixed Fee Package

Terms and Conditions

Further to your recent enquiry and in advance of your forthcoming appointment, this leaflet sets out the costs of the fixed fee package available to you:

Up to 60 minutes meeting £355.00 plus VAT

For the Fixed Fee Package, you will receive an initial consultation with one of our team of dedicated family law solicitors who will provide you with knowledge about your rights and obligations and the options available to you.

Why should I choose BTO?

The “go to” Scottish family lawyers:

- Experienced and reputable
- Accredited specialists
- Efficient, sensitive service
- Experienced mediators and collaborative options
- Range of funding options

Requirements in advance of the meeting?

You will be sent a link to complete our client ID verification process in advance of your meeting taking place. You will require to upload your passport or photographic driving licence and a current bank statement or utility bill showing your current address.

When do I pay?

You will be asked to pay the fixed fee upfront. This can be by way of debit or credit card or by direct Bank Transfer (further details shall be provided).

What if my meeting overruns?

For meetings lasting more than 60 minutes time will be charged at £88.75 plus vat per 15 minutes or part thereof, and you shall be invoiced separately for this.

Information provided for consideration before the meeting?

This will be charged at the same rate as if the meeting itself overruns (see above).

What if I require additional assistance?

This will be discussed fully with you at your meeting.

If you have any further queries in connection with our fixed fee packages, call us on:
